

Shipping & Handling

Distribution will be dealt by the company Maria Dabrowski.

Normal shipping generally takes 5-7 business days.

ADVICE: If you want to be assured that your order finds you, please order it with Track & Trace! There will not be a refund or reshipping. No Track & Trace = at own risk!

All sales are final. Although I pack and ship every order with the greatest care, Maria Dabrowski is not responsible for any damages or lost items once the items leave our warehouse. There will not be a refund or reshipping of items. I ship every order without track & trace unless requested (see shipping options at check out). Orders usually leave our company within 5-7 business days. How long it takes to deliver the order to you is up to the postal service. Within Europe, your package will usually be delivered within a week. Outside of Europe, it can take up to 3 weeks, or sometimes even longer. So please have some patience while waiting.

I ship internationally. For the delivery I use the services of PostNL. At the checkout, you will see the total shipping costs for your order. Shipping costs are based on size, weight and destination. I ship from Europe, unfortunately, shipping to countries outside of Europe is becoming more and more expensive. I will keep you updated if I have found a cheaper solution to buy our books/products outside of Europe.

Please keep in mind that Maria Dabrowski is a sole proprietorship who does it's best to get you what you've ordered, packed carefully and the quickest I possibly can. All orders are securely packed, however Maria Dabrowski cannot be held accountable for how the package is treated during shipping.

If there is a problem notify Maria Dabrowski and I will do our best to solve the situation.
